This morning a suicide bomber targeted the headquarters of the Gendarmerie in Ait Aïssi, 15 km south of Tizi Ouzou, the attack occurred at about 4am. A vehicle laden with explosives rammed into the main entrance of the building detonating causing an extensive amount of damage to the area. The Mayors and offices of the local communal guards were also damaged. First reports are there is at least one person killed and eight Policemen seriously wounded. The attack comes in an atmosphere of relative calm. It also marks the return of the suicide attacks, which maybe a change in tactics for the GSPC as this does not involve direct contact with the security forces using large scale amounts of manpower.
